

Mixed Media Workshop Supply List (updated 10/2018)

These are all just recommendations and if you have similar items already at home that is perfect too.
This will be a fun day of painting and exploration!

-18x24 canvas (or other size if you prefer)

-Assorted brushes

-Starter set Sennelier Oil Pastels

-Acrylic paint, assortment of colors including but not limited to Two blues (ultramarine, cerulean)
Two yellows (cadmium yellow lt, yellow ochre)
Two reds (Alizarin Crimson, Cadmium Red)
White
Burnt Sienna
*wild card, phthalo blue (not necessary but fun to have)

-Black Grease pencil

-Small squeeze bottle (similar to small ketchup or mustard picnic bottles)

-something in which to rinse brushes

-old rag for hands small fabric scraps useful but not necessary

-paper towels

A note about color from your instructor: "If you already have a working palette of acrylic paint colors that you find comfortable, you are welcome to use those instead of my suggestions. I prefer to work with a limited palette of primary colors and do all of my mixing from that starting point."

**The main thing will be your canvas, some acrylic paint, and brushes"